

MODULE DESCRIPTION
INTERNATIONAL AND EUROPEAN UNION LAW

Title of Study Programme and Code	Type (compulsory/optional)	Cycle	Year of study when the component is delivered (if applicable)
LAW	Obligatory	1 st	3 rd year
Semester/trimester when the component is delivered	Number of ECTS credits allocated	Language of instruction	Mode of delivery (face-to-face/e-learning/...)
5 th ; 6 th	12	LT, EN, RU	Face - to - face, e-learning
Learning outcomes		Study methods	Assessment methods
After completion of the study subject student will be able: LO 1 To explain the main institute of international law; LO 2 To define the limits of the competence of international law entities and analyse their activities; LO 3 To explain the main institutes of EU law; LO 4 To define the limits of the competence of EU law entities and analyse their activities; LO 5 To identify specific practical problems arising in international law; LO 6 To identify specific practical problems arising in EU law; LO 7 To analyse and apply international law acts properly; LO 8 To analyse and apply EU law acts properly.
Prerequisites (these courses must have successfully completed before s/he can take this course)
The Law Theory, Law Enforcement Institutions of the Republic of Lithuania, Constitutional Law of the Republic of Lithuania, Labor Law, Administrative Law, Administrative Procedure Law, Civil Law, Civil Procedure Law, Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure Law.
Course content
Recommended or required reading and other learning resources/tools
Module is composed of two subjects.

The subject of International Law is included in the module, because during the course of the subject students are introduced to international law as a regulatory tool of international relations between states, international organizations and other members of the international community, the fundamental principles of international law regulation, are taught to identify problems of international law and formulate their solutions, enabled to further deepen self-study into specific areas of international law.

The subject of European Union Law is included in the module because during this study students are provided with knowledge about the general principles of functioning of the European Union, the role of individual EU institutions in the legislative process, decision-making procedures as well as the nature of EU law, the sources of EU law, the legal regulation of freedoms. The teaching of the subject is also intended to enable students to properly analyze primary and secondary EU law, to link it to the national law of the Republic of Lithuania, to understand the peculiarities of examining court litigation in the EU.

SUBJECT DESCRIPTION

INTERNATIONAL LAW

Title of Study Programme and Code	Type (compulsory/optional)	Cycle	Year of study when the component is delivered (if applicable)
LAW	Obligatory	1 st	3 rd year
Semester/trimester when the component is delivered	Number of ECTS credits allocated	Language of instruction	Mode of delivery (face-to-face/e-learning/...)
5 th , 6 th	6	LT, EN, RU	Face - to - face, e-learning
Learning outcomes		Study methods	Assessment methods
After completion of the study subject, a student will be able:		Lectures, interactive lectures, consultations, practice, discussions, individual and group work, visual material, group tasks, situation analysis, problem solving, literature analysis, search and analysis of legislation	Test, examination (oral, written form), colloquium, practical works, final (project) works, oral presentations, internship reports, etc.
LO 1	To explain the main international law institute;
LO 2	To define the boundaries of competence of international law entities and analyze their activities;
LO 3	To identify specific practical problems arising in international law;
LO 4	To analyze and apply international law acts properly.
Prerequisites (these courses must have successfully completed before s/he can take this course)
The Law Theory, Law Enforcement Institutions of the Republic of Lithuania, Constitutional Law of the Republic of Lithuania, Labor Law, Administrative Law, Administrative Procedure Law, Civil Law, Civil Procedure Law, Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure Law.
Course content
1. Concept, system, principles of international law. 2. Sources of international law. 3. Public and private international law. 4. Relationship between international law and national law. 5. Agreements of international law. 6. International relations and their participants. 7. Diplomatic and consular law. 8. International maritime law. International space law. 9. Liability in international law. 10. International agreements of legal assistance. Extradition.

Recommended or required reading and other learning resources/tools
1. Vadapalas, V. Tarptautinė teisė. (2006). Vilnius: Eugrimas 2. Vadapalas, V. Tarptautinė teisė. Pagrindiniai dokumentai ir jurisprudencija.(2003) Vilnius: Eugrimas. 3. Mikelėnas, V. Tarptautinės privatinės teisės įvadas. (2001). Vilnius: Justitia 4. Akehurst, M., Malanczuk, P. Šiuolaikinės tarptautinės teisės įvadas. (2000). Vilnius. 5. Register of legal acts www.e-tar.lt 6. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Lithuania https://www.urm.lt; 7. JT Chartija, Žmogaus teisių ir pagrindinių laisvių apsaugos konvencija, Vienos konvencija dėl tarptautinių sutarčių teisės, kitos konvencijos; Tarptautinio Teisingumo Teismo, Europos Žmogaus Teisių Teismo praktika. https://www.urm.lt/default/lt/uzsienio-politika/tarptautines-sutartys/; https://treaties.un.org/; https://www.icj-cij.org/en; https://hudoc.echr.coe.int/eng.

SUBJECT DESCRIPTION
EUROPEAN UNION LAW

Title of Study Programme and Code	Type (compulsory/optional)	Cycle	Year of study when the component is delivered (if applicable)
LAW	Obligatory	1 st	3 rd year
Semester/trimester when the component is delivered	Number of ECTS credits allocated	Language of instruction	Mode of delivery (face-to-face/e-learning/...)
5 th ,6 th	6	LT, EN, RU	Face - to - face, e-learning
Learning outcomes		Study methods	Assessment methods
After completion of the study subject, a student will be able:		Lectures, consultations, practicals, discussions, individual and group work, individual tasks, visual material, individual and group presentation, interpretation of terminology, concept map, exercises, literature analysis, search and analysis of legal acts, problem solving, analysis of ECJ judgments	Test, examination (oral, written form), colloquium, practical works, final (project) works, oral presentations, internship reports, etc.
LO 1	To explain the main EU law institutes;
LO 2	To define the scope of competence of EU legal entities and analyze their activities;
LO 3	To identify specific practical problems arising in EU law;
LO 4	To analyze and apply EU legal acts properly
Prerequisites (these courses must have successfully completed before s/he can take this course)
The Law Theory, Law Enforcement Institutions of the Republic of Lithuania, Constitutional Law of the Republic of Lithuania, Labor Law, Administrative Law, Administrative Procedure Law, Civil Law, Civil Procedure Law, Criminal Procedure Law.
Course content
1. Legal status of the European Union, integration process. 2. System of EU institutions: Council, European Commission, European Parliament, European Court of Justice, European Council of Summits, additional institutions. Institutional reform. Decision-making procedures. 3. Sources of Community law. Primary legal acts. Derivative legal acts. Common principles of law. 4. Division of competence between the EU and member-states, subsidiary principle.

5. EU law and national law. Direct exercising and application. EU law in Lithuanian legal system. Assurance of EU law implementation at EU and national level.
6. Jurisprudence of European Court of Justice. The right of national courts to address the European Court of Justice for a preliminary decision.
7. Main freedoms of internal market of the European Union.
8. Protection of consumers and workers' rights in the EU space.
9. EU competition law

Recommended or required reading and other learning resources/tools

1. Cvelich, M., Europos Sąjungos teisė. (2007). Vilnius: Eugrimas.
2. Barnard C. ES materialinė teisė. T1. (2005). Vilnius: Eugrimas.
3. Barnard C. Europos Sąjungos materialinė teisė. T2. (2005). Vilnius: Eugrimas.
4. Vėgėlė I. Europos Sąjungos teisė (Vidaus rinkos laisvės, konkurencija ir teisės derinimas). (2011). Vilnius: Registrų centras
5. Dadoomo C.& Quenivet N. European Union Law. (2015). Hall and Stott Publishing Ltd, 27 Witney Close, Saltford
6. Registry of legal acts www.e-tar.lt
7. Official website of EU http://europa.eu/index_lt.htm
8. Court of Justice of the European Union <http://curia.europa.eu/>