

STUDY SUBJECT DESCRIPTION
PHILOSOPHY

Title of Study Programme and Code	Type (compulsory/optional)	Cycle	Year of study when the component is delivered (if applicable)
Management of tourism services	Alternatively elective	1 st	1 st year
Semester/trimester when the component is delivered	Number of ECTS credits allocated	Language of instruction	Mode of delivery (face-to-face/e-learning/...)
1 st	3 ECTS	English	face-to-face
Learning outcomes		Study methods	Assessment methods
After completion of the study subject, a student should be able: LO 1 be able to understand and know how to apply tourism business legislation, principles of the social responsibility, ethics and valuable attitudes in the professional activity; LO 2 be able to learn continuously, understand selves in the public context and act in a responsible manner in the dynamic tourism business environment; LO 3 be able to pursue to be a leader, able to analyse and critically assess strategies of the chosen activity, to establish objectives, formulate targets and foresee the most efficient ways and measures for their achievement.		Interactive lectures; philosophical literature and others information sources review; explanation; situation analysis; individual and group work; discussion „for and against“ ; consulting; reflection.	Presentation of practical work; presentation of independent work; control work; project work (essay).
Prerequisites (these courses must have successfully completed before s/he can take this course)
-
Course content
1. Origins and sources of philosophy. 2. The question of existence (ontology). 3. The issue of goodness (philosophical ethics). 4. The question of the meaning of history (history of philosophy).
Recommended or required reading and other learning resources/tools
1. Begam R., Soderholm J. 2015. Platonic Occasions: Dialogues on Literature, Art and Culture. Stockholm University Press. 2. Nutall J. An Introduction to Philosophy. 2002. Great Britain by MPG Books Ltd, Bodmin, Cornwall 3. Lauder H. 2006. Education, globalization and social change. Oxford University Press 4. Perry J., Bratman M., Fischer J. M. Introduction to Philosophy. 2013. Oxford University Press			